A weekly word about reverence for the Eucharist.

"Advent is an annual opportunity for course correction—a time to attune ourselves more fully to our truest calling; preparing for the Lord when he comes again. And the Eucharist is the means to making this a reality in our lives."

My Dear Parishioners,

Greetings to you and Happy New Year, Happy Advent! This year, with Christmas on a Sunday, we are treated to a rare FULL four week Advent Season. So often, the fourth week of Advent is cut short by Christmas! But not this year! And as it now begins, I encourage you to make the most of Advent's Fullness! It's not the fullness of a turkey-filled stomach, a house full of Christmas Gifts or a Calendar with every date filled-up. Advent Fullness involves making and leaving space for the Child Jesus to rest His Head on you. How might this happen? Consider the following ways:

- 1) Go to Confession: The Sacrament of Confession – sorrow for sin, repentance and confession-- makes room for Christ Jesus. This Saturday, our 2nd Graders will be celebrating the Sacrament for the first time, readying themselves not just for Christmas but for Communion. We can do the same. Set a date for a good Confession this Advent. It'll make room for God-in-you.
- 2) Time Before the Blessed Sacrament: Visit Church during the week. Our Church is open every day till 3PM. On Mondays, we have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. And this Friday, from 7 to 8:30PM guided prayer and praise before the Lord. Such time makes room for God-in-you.
- 3) Advent Reflections/Time with the Word: There is an abundance of on-line daily email reflections on Advent. From Bishop Barron to Matthew Kelly, to the US Bishops Website to the Word Among Us. Pray with the Word of God and there will be room made for God-in You.

Finally, a word from one of my favorite Advent Authors, Carol Houelander and her book The Reed Of God:

Those who complain the loudest of the emptiness of their lives are usually people whose lives are overcrowded, filled with trivial details, plans, desires, ambitions, unsatisfied cravings for passing pleasures, doubts, anxieties and fears;

How different is the pre-Advent emptiness of Our Lady's purposeful virginity which is not a formless emptiness, a void without meaning, but one that has a shape, a form given to it by the purpose for which it is intended. Like the hollow in the reed, the narrow riftless emptiness which can have only one destiny: to receive the piper's breath and to utter the song that is in his heart. Or it is the emptiness like the hollow in the cup, shaped to receive water or wine; the emptiness of the bird's nest, built in a round warm ring to receive the little bird. This is the purposeful emptiness of a virginal heart, this is the gift of Advent.

Peace,
Fr. Rogers

THE GIVING TREE

It's that time of year again for the St. Patrick GIVING TREE, which is one way that we can live out our parish mission of Receiving & Giving the Love of God. Our Parish Giving Tree, now found in the vestibule, supports the following organizations: Birthright of Coatesville, St. Edmond's Home for Children, Good Samaritan Ser- vices, Kennett Area Community Services, Sunday Breakfast Mis- sion, and Family Promise. As your family acknowledges the many blessings you've received this year, please consider taking an orna- ment and donate to someone who may be in need this holiday season.

Please return your gift to the vestibule by Friday, December 15. Please note, gifts for Sunday Breakfast Mission must be returned by December 6. All gifts should be unwrapped and with the orna- ment attached to ensure it goes to the proper organization.

Thank you for your kindness to those in need.

PREP

Parish Religious Education Program

"Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord." Psalm 31:24

Advent is a season of preparation and waiting. As we wait, we are watchful because we do not know when Jesus will come again. As Christians, we believe that Jesus will come again to complete his work on earth when the world becomes as God meant it to be. Silently reflect in your heart, how might you prepare your heart for Jesus' coming?
