My Dear Parishioners,

Praised Be Jesus Christ! This past week, I came across The Legend of the Ladybug. I had never heard of this before and thought I would share it with you here:

The legend of the ladybug comes from Europe during the Middle Ages, when swarms of insects attacked the crops, threatening Europe with starvation. Catholic farmers asked the Virgin Mary, Our Lady, to save them from this insect plague. In answer to their prayers, a cloud of small, black-spotted, red insects arrived, devoured the pests, and saved the crops. The grateful farmers named them "Our Lady's Bugs," which became "Ladybugs." The red wings represent the Virgin Mary's red cloak and the 14 black spots were thought to represent her seven joys and seven sorrows.

Isn't that interesting? Certainly an uplifting story, but is it more than that? Is it true? Like most legends there are bits and pieces of Truth: Ladybugs do eat other insects, they did exist in the Middle Ages and their name early on was affiliated with Mary, Our Lady's Bird or Beetle. But evidence of the insect plague hard to find. One thing's for sure, the lady bug has a special appeal across history.

This brings me to the importance of history. With the start of another school year upon us and the 19th anniversary of 9/11 this week, I am struck by the quickness of time and the making of history. For many of us, the events of 9/11 are more than history, they are part of our own life experience. But with each passing year, the 9/11 events become for a growing number of people, merely parts of history. We have arrived at the point when all those in college have no memory of 9/11. They were either not born or too young to remember. Thus the importance of history, the importance of good teachers, the importance of one generation to the next. This is true especially now, when so much of history is left untold, mis-told or even: "Cancelled"!

Thankfully, the events and reality of our Christian Faith: The Birth, Life, Death and Resurrection of Our Lord are different. These can never be cancelled, because such events are on-going. Christ is alive! God is with us and by His grace, We are with God.

This week, I encourage you all to speak of history to those around you, especially those younger than you. 9/11 is a perfect day for us to do that. But use the opportunity to speak also of your faith. Speak of the person of Jesus in your life. The hope that He has offered you, the love that you have received and the faith that keeps you going. All of that is more than a legend, it's more than hand-me-down religion. It is true, it is beautiful and it has great power to save.

Peace,

Fr. Rogers

Music for September 5/6, 2020
23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon (Psalm 119): You are just, O Lord, and your judgment is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love.

Entrance Hymn: I Sing the Mighty Power of God-(ELLACOMBE)

1. I sing the mighty pow'r of God
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.

2. I sing the goodness of the Lord
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.
Lord, how thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn my eye;
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!

Responsorial Psalm 95: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Communion Hymn: Spirit and Grace-(Ricky Manalo, CSP)

Verse 1: Spirit and grace, here in this meal; You are the wind that breathes through the field.
Gather the wheat and form us in Christ. Come, be our source and breath of life.

Refrain: In the bread, blessed, broken and shared, Christ is our life, whose presence we bear.
Come, O Spirit, make your grace revealed in this holy meal.

Verse 2: Spirit and grace, here in this meal; you are the life that flows through the vine.
Gather this drink and form us in Christ. Come, be our source and blood of life. (Refrain)

Verse 3: Spirit and grace, here in this place; you are the light that shines in this space.
Gather your people, and form us in Christ. Come be the heartbeat of our lives. (Refrain)

Verse 4: Spirit of God, sending us forth; we spread your wisdom throughout all the earth.
Gather the nations and form us in Christ. Come, be the presence in our lives. (Refrain) (continued in next column)

Communion Antiphon (Psalm 42): Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

Recessional Hymn: How Great Thou Art-(Stuart K. Hine)

Verse 1: O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed:

Refrain: Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!

Verse 2: When through the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze: (Refrain)

ST. PATRICK CHURCH BLOOD DRIVE

Our Blood Drive will be held on Thursday, September 17 from 2-7:00PM in the church basement. You can sign up to donate by going to RedCrossBlood.org and enter sponsor code stpatrickks to schedule an appointment. Sign-up is also available on our website: www.stpatrickkennettsquare.org.

Every 2 seconds someone in the U.S. needs blood. Won't you please help and become a donor?

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen. 236

TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PREP
Parish Religious Education Program

Dear Families,

Our parish religious education program for children in grades kindergarten to 7th grade will begin shortly. If you have not registered please take a moment to do so. Due to the pandemic we are offering two options-"At Home" learning which requires parental assistance and does not involve any virtual learning, and "In Class" learning which has the children attend class sessions every Sunday morning beginning September 20, 2020. PREP Registration information can be found at www.stpatrickkennettsquare.org

To provide further details on each choice there will be a parent orientation for the "At Home" option. It will be offered on Sunday, September 13 at 3:00PM and again at 4:30PM in our church. The families who registered for "In Class" instruction, are asked to attend the orientation on Monday, September 14 at 7:00PM in the school. You will receive information on the orientation once you have registered your child. Contact Marianne Kane at 610-444-2214 or stpatdre15@gmail.com for further information.

St. Patrick is offering The Wild Goose series on Thursday morning via Zoom from September 10-December 10. 10:00AM to 11:30AM. Contact Rose Hearn at rosehearn@comcast.net or 610-357-7315 for more information.

The Wild Goose Series will help you experience a deeper relationship with the Person of the Holy Spirit, and as you come to experience God's presence and power, this very same Spirit will transform you and bring you freedom.

ENCOUNTERING HEAVEN ON EARTH-THE MASS

Descon Jim Elliott will be walking us through the Liturgy with Bishop Barron this Fall. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

Class begins on Wednesday, September 9 at 7:00PM in the Buffington House.

GUIDELINES FOR ATTENDING MASS IN THE GREEN PHASE

At all Masses, provide and wear a face covering. Exceptions are "children younger than 2 years old, anyone who has trouble breathing and anyone who is incapacitated or unable to remove the cloth face covering without assistance." (CDC Guidelines) Please provide your own worship materials as missalettes will not be available. You are encouraged to take a Church Bulletin when entering Church as it will have the Hymns and Responsorial Psalm to follow the Celebration of Mass. Hand sanitizers will be available in the back of Church; it is recommended that you bring your own.

After arriving at Church, exit your car, put on your face covering and proceed to the front door of Church. Please maintain social distancing as you walk on Church grounds. Ushers/Greeters will be present at all Masses who can answer any questions you may have regarding returning to Church and can assist you with any seating needs. Holy water fonts remain empty.

Pews will be marked off to allow for social distancing. Six feet is the recommended norm for social distancing. Social distancing should be observed between members of different households. Members of the same household do not need to observe social distancing among themselves and may sit together as normal.

During Mass a collection will be taken up during the Offertory as usual with long-handled baskets. The procession with the Gifts during the Offertory is omitted. There will be no Sign of Peace and the Precious Blood will not be distributed.

Priests/Deacons may or may not wear a mask while distributing Communion. You are asked to receive the Body of Christ in the hand. If you wish to receive on the tongue, please wait until all have received. When you receive Communion, exit your pew towards the side aisle and maintain social distancing in line. At the first pew, remove one side of your mask. When the person in front of you has received Communion, proceed to Communion Minister to receive the Body of Christ. Reposition your mask and return to your pew via the center aisle. At the conclusion of Mass, pews will exit through the center aisle one at a time from back to front. Please wait for the Usher's guidance.

Patience is bitter but its fruit is sweet.
